

For Docker hub login we need to create the new access token

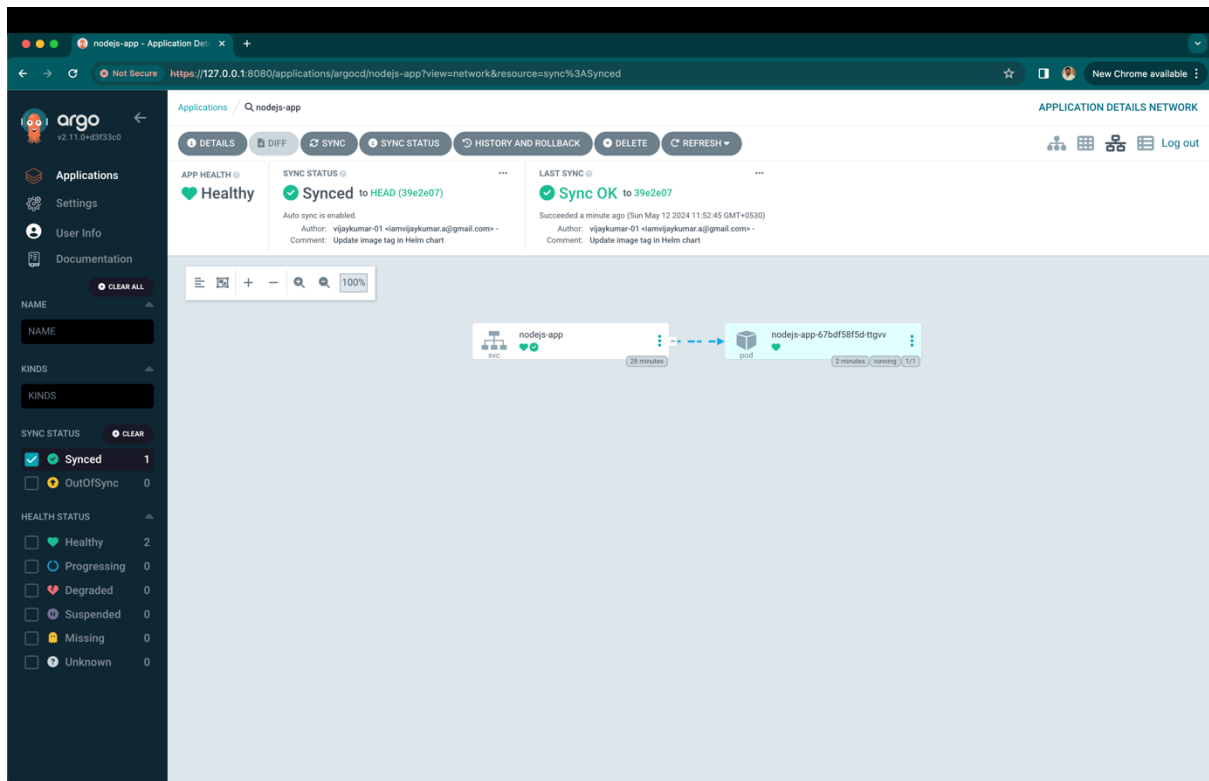

Create a github secret for the provided accessing dockerhub to push the image to repository

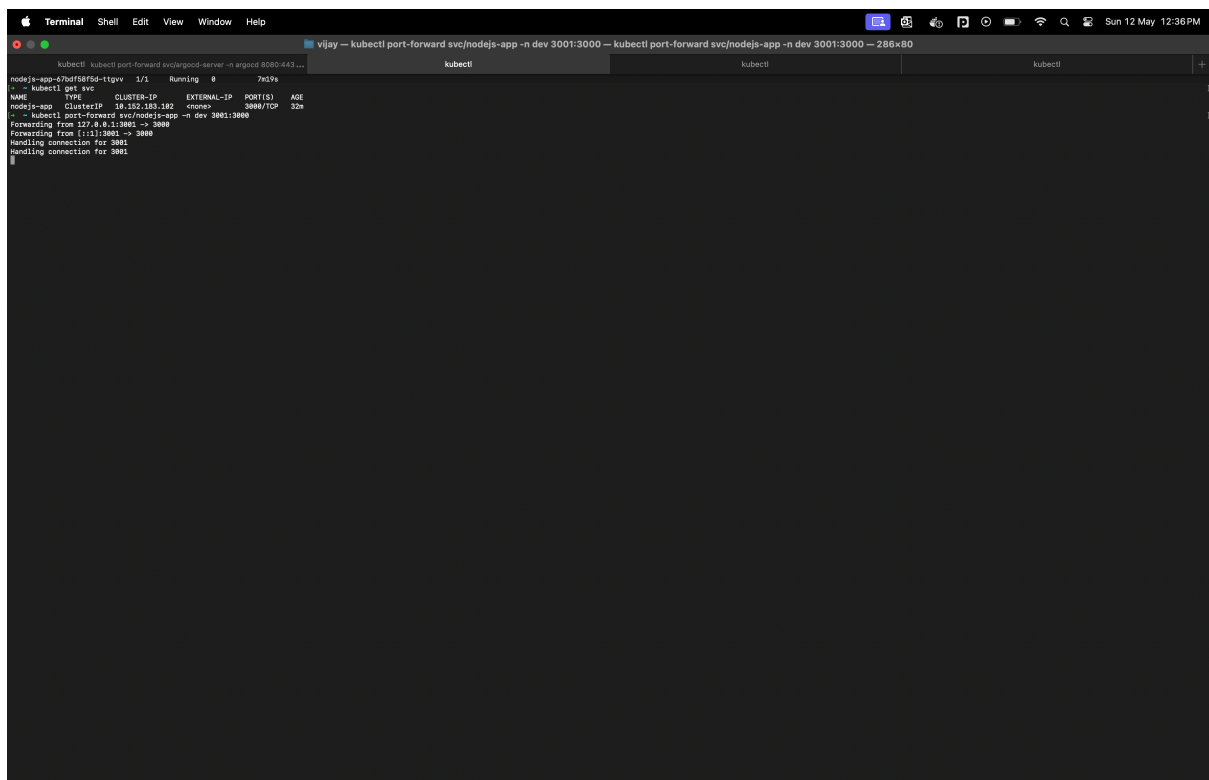

I have created the secret using docker hub credentials

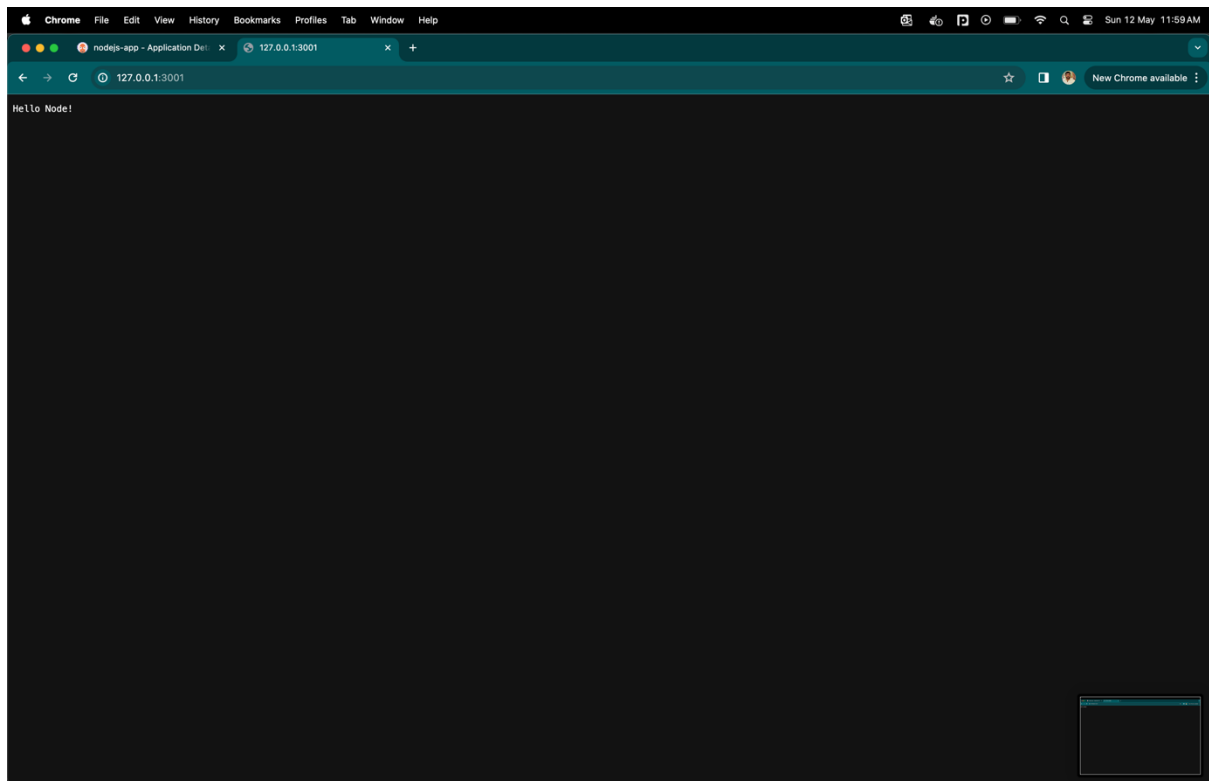

Setup nodejs-app application in argocd .

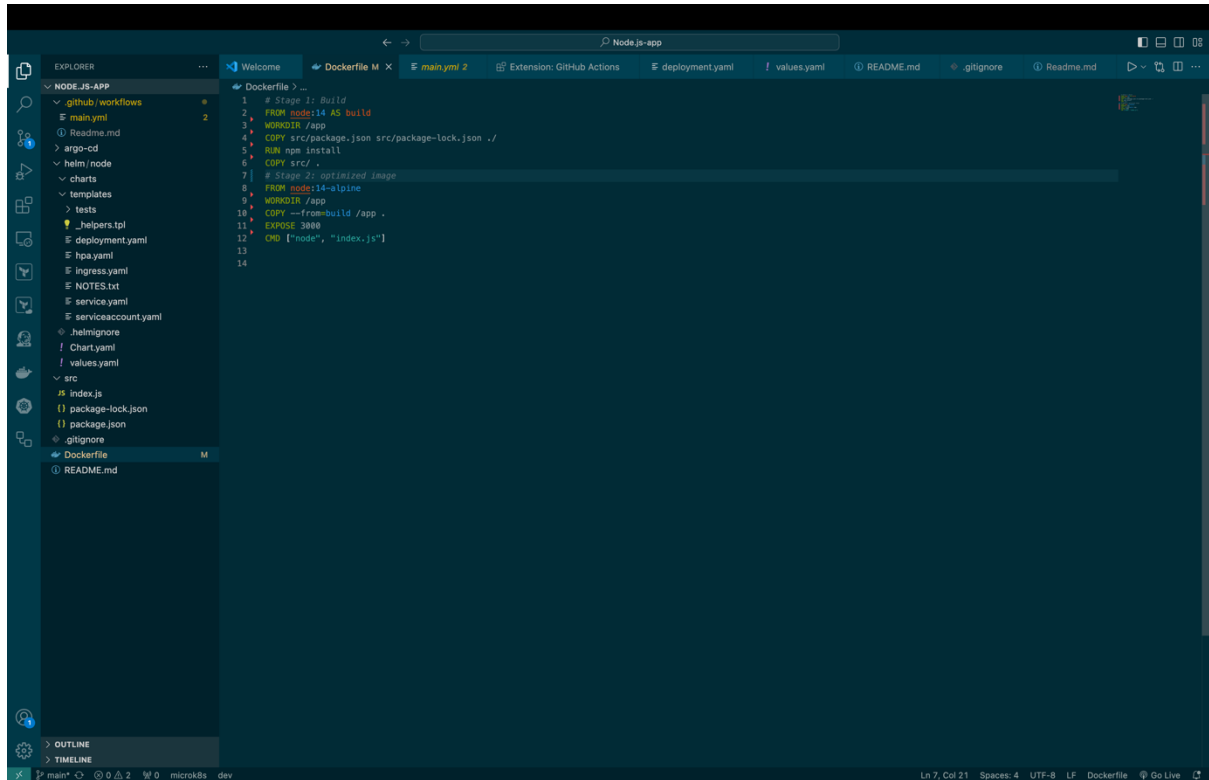

The nodejs-app application is synced then it deployed

Verify the deployment in terminal , port-forward it to access the application from localhost

Finally it is deployed

Directory view of code repo